1. 2.

like to have fun at Chats - worth, it's a great place to be. I like to have fun at Chats - worth, feel-ing hap-py, safe and free. I like to learn here at Chats - worth, it's a wel-com-ing com-mu - ni - ty. I like to learn here at Chats - worth, I feel like I can just be me! 1. On 2. I

(Last time)
To Coda

my first day at Chats - worth School I was ner-vous and a lit-tle bit scared,

Then I saw those old friends of mine, I was ex - ci - ted they were there.

Chatsworth School Song - p.2

Ev-'ry day I make some brand new friends be-ing help-ful, be-ing kind, and ev-'ry year I'm get-ting strong-er here in my heart and in my mind. I show res-pect ev-'ry-where I go in my class and on the play-ground, too. I know how to say, "Won't you come and play" in-clud-ing oth-ers in all I do. I'm grate-ful for my par-ents and teach-ers, who chal-lenge me to al-ways try. They care for me, so I will al-ways be cap-a-ble of climb-ing high. I 3.

Read-ing, writ-ing, mind-ful-ness, Mu - sic, Art, P. E. Cho-rus, band and orch-es-tra, STEM and li-bra-ry.

Out-door class-room, gar-den-ing, the play-grounds where we play, Mon-key bars and Ke-va Planks and Ga Ga ev-'ry day! I Chats - worth!
